

Application for Membership

Support the work of the Almond Valley Heritage Trust by becoming a member of the Friends of Almond Valley

- Friends members receive regular newsletters and invitations to social events and meetings.
- Friends can become part of the team at Almond Valley by joining work parties, volunteering for regular duties, or helping out in many other ways.
- Presentation of the Friends membership card also provides unlimited free admission.

Conditions of Use

- 1.) Membership is valid for 12 months from the date of issue
- 2.) Membership is non-transferable : it provides admission only for those people named on the card.
- 3.) The membership card provides admission to Almond Valley during normal opening hours, but does not cover rides, Morag's Meadow soft play area or other additional attractions that are not included in the standard admission price.
- 4.) The membership card must be shown on every occasion. Members will be refused admission without it.
- 5.) Lost cards can be replaced, or alterations made to the children named on the card, at a cost of £5.
- 6.) A card will be issued to each adult covered by a family membership, allowing either parent to visit with the children. If both adults visit, both cards must be shown.
- 7.) We reserve the right to suspend admission rights if the membership card has been mis-used, (eg. by lending it to a relative or friend !)
- 8.) All children must be accompanied by an adult

Gift Aid Declaration (optional)

I pay income tax in Britain and wish that the payment made by me today is considered as a Gift Aid donation to the Almond Valley Heritage Trust. I am happy that the Trust reclaim the tax on this donation.
